Beth David is looking for an engaging, enthusiastic and dynamic Youth Director!

Our Youth Director plans, organizes, and delivers Beth David's youth activities and programming and supports planning, organization and delivery of family activities and programming for all Jewish holidays and other events during the year. This part-time position reports to the Executive Director.

Key responsibility for our Youth Director is outreach, publicity, and promotion to Beth David youth to support all youth programming and events. Our Youth Director also:

- Supervises youth staff (USY, Kadima, Yedidim, and youth services leaders) and recruits and supervises teen volunteers
- Is responsible for liaison with USCJ/USY and other synagogues in support of youth programming
- Acts as site supervisor for Beth David's Shinshinim (Young Israeli Emissaries) and supports organization and delivery of our B'nai Mitzvah program
- Regularly attends Shabbat morning and holiday services
- Coordinates all activities with lay leadership, Clergy and office and custodial staff, and attends Families & Youth Committee meetings as required

Experience with youth in a formal or informal Jewish education setting and the ability to mentor teens are assets.
