

Diller Teen Fellows: Interim Summer Coordinator
Project Description
Trip Dates July 3rd -24th, 2017

JCC Greater Boston is looking for an experienced Jewish educator to serve as interim coordinator for the Israel Summer Seminar portion of the program.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Diller Teen Fellowship is a 15-month-experiential education program for 10th and 11th graders designed to inspire and promote leadership among Jewish youth. This International program includes 16 North American, South African, English, Argentinean and Australian communities, and an equivalent number of Israeli communities. Each local community selects twenty Jewish teens from different backgrounds to create a local group of Fellows. Together, these twenty teens experience workshops, shabbatonim, overnights, a cultural exchange, and more.

Diller Teen Fellows programming focuses on:

- Jewish identity and pluralism
- Leadership skills development
- Israel-Diaspora connections
- Community service and tikkun olam

The Israel Summer Seminar is a three-week summer experience for each local cohort. This includes:

- Touring Days: Fellows tour Israel and explore an educational narrative
- International Shabbaton: All Diaspora Fellows spend a pluralistic Shabbat together
- Community Week: Fellows spend a week living in their partner communities and learning about their partner city, based on programs they have planned together before the trip
- Congress: All 640 Diller Teen Fellows come together for four days of meaningful learning and experiences
- Closing Days: The partnership spends one last Shabbat together, followed by one last day with only the local group

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE POSITION:

- Provide mentorship and guidance to 20 program participants and 2 Junior Counselors
- Facilitate educational experiences during the trip as well as lead night circle in conjunction with the Junior Counselors

- Co -lead and supervise, in partnership with the Haifa Coordinator, a three-week summer seminar in Israel that brings the International and Israeli teens together for an intensive and immersive experience.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Lead
- Manage
- Educate
- Facilitate
- Chaperone

KEY DATES:

- Pre-trip preparation and training with Diller faculty – local and international
- Pre Israel workshop / orientation - June 11, 2017
- Pre Israel overnight- June 25-26, 2017
- Israel trip- July 3-24th, 2017

Send resume and cover letter to CPO@jccgb.org