

Youth Advisor K-2nd Grade & 3rd-5th Grade

Congregation Etz Chaim is a vibrant synagogue in the suburbs of Marietta, GA. Hosting top notch youth programming for grades K-12, Etz Chaim looks to expand it's excitement and fun with the addition of a new youth advisor.

Gesher is our K-2nd grade youth program

Junior Kadima is our 3rd-5th grade youth program

The youth advisor will be responsible for the following:

- Helping to create and plan out a fun, educational, and balanced calendar for the months of August-May.
- Promote events through face to face contact with the youth, within the hebrew school, technological tools (social media, email, phone calls) and via parental contact.
- Attend events, manage events, and collect feedback from children and parents regarding event success.
- Utilize parent volunteers to assess and plan out future events.
- Utilize high school leaders to boost excitement, participation, and awareness of youth events.
- Communicate with youth director weekly about event updates, issues, problems, and solutions.

The ideal candidate would be as follows:

- Able to work 6-8 hours/week
- Have reliable transportation
- High school graduate
- A prior knowledge/participant of a jewish youth group (but not required).

Compensation is $200/month

Interested candidates should contact Perry Birbrager, Youth Director at perry@etzchaim.net.
